New York Stock Market

New York, February 15.—The stock market gave additional evidence today of sinking into dullness and apaths. The situation is summed up in the fact that urgent liquidation has ceased to press upon the market, while no disposition makes itself manifest to accumulate stocks with sufficient termination to carry prices up and hold them there. The desire to see the definition of the scope of the Sherman antigrust law emanate from the Supreme Court decision in the American Tobacco and Standard Oil cases, is the accepted motive for refraining trom large commitments in the market on the part of capitalists of the class which makes the great speculative movements. From the low prices of Monday of last week, marking the culmination of that liquidation, the rebound has been substantial, reaching to over 11 points in Reading, which led the recovery. Efforts to extend the recovery centred on that stock to-day. The professional operators, who were conducting the movement, found insufficient demand to absorb profits taking sales, and took warning from this fact of the limitation of that market. Finding themselves almost alone in the busing of stocks, they desisted, and allowed the dealings to lapse into a condition of semi-stagnation. Foreign influences were not definitely in favor of advancing prices. Speculators were disappointed that the Canadian Pacific dividend was not raised, and there was a sharp break in that stock in London. The diminishing force of the current of the price movement was seen in the hesitating uncertainty of the unreventing fluctuations.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $2,520,000.
United States bonds were unchanged on call.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, February 15.—The cotton market was a little more active to-day and ruled generally easier under scattering liquidation and bear pressure, with the close ready, not unchanged to 7 points lower.

The opening was steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 2 points, and prices thowed a net loss of about 36p points right Greet the call under overnight selling orders. attributed to disappointment over the ruling of yesterday's market and the some-Khat less encouraging reports from Liverpool, owing to the smaller spot sales. Furing Houses were buyers on the decline, evicently against sales in the Liverpool market, and there was covering by setterday's vellers, on which prices railled 5 or 6 points from the lowest shortly after the opening, but as soon as arbitrage business was with-Brawn, following the close of Liverpool, the market was left without much support, and prices turned easier under continued liquidation. New Oricains selling and renewal of local bear pressure. There was no material change in the character of the news, but recent buyers seemed disappointed that the buillesh average of trade reports had not brought about an increased demand for futures, and talk of freer Southern offerings of spot cotton above the lie, level probably added to their inclination to sell out their holdings. At any rate May contracts eased off to 14.7, or 8 points below the closing figures of last night, and while there was some covering toward the close prices were within 2 or 2 points of the lowest on active positions. The new crop was comparatively onlet and steady during the entire day, closing about net unchanged to 1-16c, lower, Wires from New Orieans officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c, lower, Wires from New Orieans officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c, lower, Wires from New Orieans officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c, lower, Wires from New Orieans officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c, lower, wires from New Orieans segins in Toxas yesterday.

A Lawyer's Opinion

One of the best lawyers in the State of Virginia made this emphatic statement to us: "I can say unqualifiedly that a strong Trust Company like yours is eminently better qualified to act as Executor, Guardian or Trustee than any individual."

We have heard this opinion expressed, but in different words, by many business men during the past ninety days, and we dare say it is the opinion of most men who have given the matter serious consideration.

A request on a postal will bring our booklet on trusts.
